

Year: 2021

Service: window display design

The main character of the window display is "an invisible, mysterious person". This is a collective character and each of us can recognize themselves in these sculptural forms-hands. The objective is to intrigue the viewer and imply that there, in the depth behind the display, is the very place where everyone can enjoy a great variety of delicacies.

